BOUTIQUE HOTEL

CAPE TOWN

BY BON HOTELS

The Grand Daddy Boutique Hotel by BON in Cape Town is not just a hotel, it's a bucket-list experience. Built in 1874 as a gracious Victorian lady, it was converted into the Metropole Hotel in 1895 and now kicks up its petticoats as the most original, quirky, inventive and inviting venue in town.

Situated right on Long Street, Cape Town's coolest thoroughfare, Grand Daddy attracts both international and local visitors who come to enjoy the unique Grand Daddy vibe. Whether they are staying in the hotels' one-of-a-kind Rooftop Airstream Trailer Park, watching a movie under the stars in the open-air Pink Flamingo cinema, riding the baroque-and-roll antique elevator, enjoying a cocktail in the Sky Bar with its view of Table Mountain, or tucking into Cape specialties at the Trailer 38 Restaurant, every experience at Grand Daddy is something you will get no-where else on earth.
